Antwerp, Belgium

Antwerp is a city of nearly 500,000 settled on the Scheldt River in Belgium. Its central location in Europe, bustling port, and importance to our industry make it an ideal location for us to meet. There are plenty of cultural sights and activities to take in while you visit this modern-medieval city. Antwerp was once home to the master painter Rubens and now the Royal Museum of Fine Art and the Rubenshuis display many excellent examples of his work. The well known Diamond District is a hotspot for tourists and its namesake alike. Almost 80% of the world's diamonds pass through this Antwerp neighborhood! For more information about tourist activities and Antwerp's rich history visit the Antwerp Tourism website: <http://visit.antwerpen.be/>

Transportation

Getting to and around Antwerp is an easy undertaking with its proximity to transportation hubs and modern public transportation system. Antwerp is serviced by two airports. Brussels Airport is 45 kilometres from Antwerp, or 30 minutes by car. Antwerpen International Airport \(Deurne\) is a 15-minute drive from Antwerp. For those travelling by train, all of the international and intercity trains make stops at Antwerpen-Centraal. Once in Antwerp, delegates will find getting around the city is simple with the Antwerp-Tram and taxis available. More information on travel options to and from the Hilton Hotel Antwerp is available on their website.
