

Jerry d'Aquin
Con-Sul Inc.

Jerry d'Aquin entered the sulfur and phosphate fertilizer industries in 1972.

He formed ConSul in 1987 to provide commercial advice on all matters sulfur—including but not limited to sourcing, marketing, quality, economics and arbitration. His particular highly-sought out specialty is the forming, handling, transport, use and SHE dust issues associated with formed sulfur.

The North American Quarterly Sulfur Review is one of Con-Sul's publications. It is the longest established US Sulfur publication and is wholly focused on the mission-critical commercial and market forces insights that drive sulfur industry dynamics.

Mr. d'Aquin is a frequent presenter at Sulfur conferences across the globe: CRU, IFA, TSI, TFI, Oil and Gas Journal, SYMPHOS, with MESPON and SOGAT in Abu Dhabi.