

The Economic Outlook

Gabriel Stein

Stein Brothers (UK)

This year we have a special guest who will be providing you with the current global economic outlook. Gabriel Stein, a well-respected author and presenter on several television programs, such as Bloomberg, will present his views on a host of topics important to our industries. His talking points include:

- Near-term global economic outlook with regional discussion to include China, Europe and the United States
- Monetary policies in the major economies in 2019-2020
- Geopolitical risk factors such as Brexit, the Middle East and trade wars

You will not want to miss this one!

Prepared by TSI staff