The Sulphur Institute Launches Sulphur World Symposium 2011 Website and Opens Registration

WASHINGTON, DC, October 6, 2010 — The Sulphur Institute (TSI) announced today that it has launched its Sulphur World Symposium 2011 website and registration is now open for this popular industry event. Details for the event, scheduled for April 11-14, 2011, in New York, New York, USA can be found at: www.sulphurinstitute.org/symposium11/.

Catherine Randazzo, TSI's president and CEO, commented, "TSI's annual event continues to grow in importance, setting record attendance for both of the last two years with well over 200 delegates from more than 30 countries. This speaks to the value of the program and the business opportunities available." Sulphur World Symposium 2011 will be held at the legendary Waldorf-Astoria Hotel. "The Sulphur Institute is returning to the United States for the first time in a decade and it promises to be a spectacular event with top-notch speakers in a city that is renowned for its fast-pace, business opportunities, museums, restaurants, theatre and architecture. Registration has just opened and we have already received our first confirmed delegates," she added.

"Registration is currently discounted and you are encouraged to take advantage of the reduced fees and outstanding room rates at the Waldorf-Astoria, the lowest in several years. In addition, TSI is making available a limited number of meeting rooms that can be used for company meetings," cited Marcia Horn, TSI's director, member relations and events.
